RACERS FLOCK TO WINDSOR

HUNDREDS OF HORSES NOW QUARTERED AT CANADIAN TRACK OPPOSITE DETROIT.

Starter Dade Comments on Evidences of Wonderful Popularity of Racing in Canada-Windsor Meeting to Be No Exception.

Detroit, Mich., July 9.—Four hundred horses arrived at the Windsor track yesterday and today from Fort Erie, where they raced last week. The advance guard for the summer meeting across the river are already here. Many owners, trainers and attaches of the various stables arrived by boat Moncay morning and every train has since brought its Starter A. B. Dade, who will handle the barrier at Windsor, as usual, was among the early arrivals for the meeting which is to start on Saturday next. Mr. Dade has had unusual success in his starting this season. He officiated at the barrier in Toronto, Montreal, Hamilton and Fort Eric and at each track was in rare form. There has not been a murmur against the starting at any point on the Canadian Circuit this year. "I have done the starting on the Canadian circuit for many years," said Mr. Dada last night, "and have noticed the size of the crowds increase each season. But this year the throngs at the tracks have exceeded by thousands anything ever witnessed in the past. The sport of racing is surely more popular than ever before on the Canadian "I look for no exception to the rule of Mr. Mr.

witnessed in the past. The sport of racing is surely more popular than ever before on the Canadian courses.

"I look for no exception to the rule at Windsor, where, of course, the patrons come from Detroit and the American side of the international boundary. I believe even the most optimistic will be surprised by the size of the crowds that will turn out for the races here next week."

Each year the Windsor meeting has been growing in importance, but for the coming meeting prospects are better than ever before. A handsome new steel grandstand has replaced the old structure and with many other improvements the course is made thoroughly modern in all of its appointments.

For the coming seven-days session the sort of horses that will take part are of better quality than in former years and the manner in which he various stakes have filled suggest that they will be keenly contested. For the opening day the feature will be the Frontier Handicap, one mile and an eighth, with Ocean Bound. Plate Glass, Froglegs, Star Charter, Round the World, Countless, Bob R. and more than thirty others among the eligibles. So far as the two-year-old division is concerned, it has been half a dozen years since the youngsters eligible for the stake contexts have been of the quality seen this season. With one or two exceptions reeplechasing will be a feature of the daily card of reven or more races. The steeplechase course has been improved.

The Pontchartrain Stakes, to be run on Wednesday, July 17, is at three-quarters of a mile. Helmet, Lady Irma, Bettie Sue, Vreeland, Moisant, Ben Loyal, Cherry Seed and other useful platers are eligible.

The Detroit Stakes, for two-year-olds, one of the gible.

The Detroit Stakes, for two-year-olds, one of the oldest of the Windsor fixtures, has sixty nominations. The Edenwold, another juvenile stake, promises a great contest.

On the closing day of the meeting, Saturday, July 20, the D. & C. will be the feature. This race, at the popular distance of one mile, has sixty-one nominations.

HAD BREEDING INTEREST IN FORWARD.

Lonisville, Ky., July 9.—It develops that John H. Morris had a partner in the ownership of the crack two-year-old Forward, which Dr. W. A. McEnery purchased at Latonia last month and shipped abroad, in William Sims, of Woodford County. Sims and fits brother, Edward, were prominent in turf circles about ten years ago and raced a number of good borses, including The Kentuckian. The latter ran a great race with Jack Point in the Brighton Handicap of 1900. The son of Sir Dixon won by a narrow margin, but The Kentuckian made him run the mile and a quarter in 2:04% to get home in front.

Mr. Sims got his interest in Forward by posses sing a season to Cesarion, which he secured in a deal with I. H. Wheatcroft. He informed Mr. Morris of this fact and the latter suggested that his mare Forelock be mated with Cesarion and that he and Sims share alike in the produce. This was agreeable to Sims and he thus furnished the horse and Morris the mare, Forward being the result of the mating.

This is the first time William Sims has had much of anything to do with the turf in ten years or more. He married the daughter of the late A. J. Alexander of Woodford County, and settled down on the extensive Woodburn estate. That plant was once one of the most noted of America's breeding establishments and flourished as a nursery for both thorough-bired and trotting horses for many years. It passed out of existence as a stock farm some years before Mr. Alexander died.

The farm where Forward was reared is the famous Bosque Bonita. Mr. Morris now owns the place, which was once the home of Gen. Abe Buford. Here is where Enquirer was once located and was bred and reared, and the place is rich in equine history, as many other noted horses were fooled there. The HI-fated, but brilliant, McWhirter was bred there, as also was Faustus, the grandsire of Forward, and the four racing queens, Nellie Gray, Salina, Hollywood and Malita.

Edward Sims, who raced The Kentuckian and other horses in partnership with his brother William. Louisville, Ky., July 9.—It develops that John H lorris had a partner in the ownership of the crack the four racing queens, Neille Gray, Salina, Holly wood and Malita.

Edward Sims, who raced The Kentuckian and other horses in partnership with his brother Will am, went to Texas some years ago and is now credited, with being a wealthy man, having grown riell in the oil fields of that state. He is living in Houston and has not been about the racetracks much since the son of Pirate of Penzance wore colors. It is probable that Woodburn Farm will never be revived as a great breeding plant.

William Sims still has a taste for the turf, but raising thoroughbreds on a big scale has not proven profitable in the last few years and farming, on the other hand, brings in a steady income. Robert A. Alexander, who established the place, intended it to be made the finest country estate in all America, but he died before he could carry out his plans.

TULSA HAS A LADIES' DAY.

Tulsa, Okla., July 9.—This was ladies' day at the race track and the grandstand was packed to its utmost with the fair sex. Only three books laid odds, but were kept busy on all the races. Flying Pearl, the second choice, easily won the fourth race, which served as the feature of the card. Cordova, the favorite of this race, could never get into a contending position, although hard ridden and severely punished all the way. Ovelando, the favorite in the third race, was caught in a jam soon after the start and was crowded back to last place, which ruined whatever chance he may have had.

TWENTY LEADING AMERICAN SIRES OF 1912

The racing of the last month has resulted in so materially increasing Star Shoot's advantage over his competitors in the sire list that it now seems almost a certainty that he is again to be the premier stallion of the United States and with a total much greater than that which gave him the leadership in 1911. Then his total for the year was $53,895, a sum that he already approximates. His best winner, Helios, has been refired from racing until next year, but he has so many fleet representatives still in action that it appears a total of $75,000 or more should stand to his credit at the end of 1912.

Hastings is still second, but has no great advantage over Cesarion and the record of the twenty leaders to and including the last day of June is as follows:

FLORAL PARK A FAST FILLY

DAUGHTER OF BURGOMASTER OR HAMBURG AND MINEOLA EQUALS AMERICAN RECORD.

Runs Four and One-half Furlongs in :52% Over the Lagoon Track in Race of Which She

Is an Easy Winner.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 9.—F. J. Grefer's two-year-old filly Floral Park, with 107 pounds up, today equaled the American record for four and one-half furlongs made by Joe Morris, with 103 pounds up, at Churchill Downs. May 8, 1909. She broke from the barrier like a flash and went right to the front, showing brilliant speed, and the farther she went the greater the gap she was opening on her opponents. Jockey Taplin, seeing that there was no danger of anything drawing near her, began to ease her up at the finish. Pan Zareta was the nearest in contention at any time.

Spohn had no trouble in winning the selling race at one mile. The pace in the early stages of the race was slow. Taplin took his mount to the front on entering the stretch and gained a long lead, which he easily maintained to the finish. Arasee, under restraint, did not respond to his rider's call in the final quarter.

Sandpiper, receiving a good ride, won the fifth race. Onatassa was hard held in the early part and jockey Kirsebbaum made such a late move with his mount that he was unable to get up in time. Wolf-erton, the favorite, was hard ridden all the way.

W. R. Engstrom, one of the largest bookmakers in the west, who has been enjoying himself fishing at the lakes near Coeur d'Alene, arrived this morning and expects to be in the ranks of the layers at the next cut in.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jenkins, of Boise, Idaho, the owners of a pretentious string now racing here, arrived last night and will remain throughout the meeting.

Jockey S. Johnson, the Indian rider who held his own at the late Oklahoma meeting, is here and will ride as a free lance.

Secretary Nathanson is planning to put on a gentlemen's race at one mile next Saturday, a request to that end having been made by a number of local amateur riders.

SOMETHING OF AN INDIAN JOCKEY.

A picturesque character on the turf today is Sam Johnson, better known as "Chief" Johnson, the Indian jockey, who is without doubt the oldest racerider whose name still appears daily on the jockey board. Born in Wagoner, I. T., 42 years ago, the "Chief" has been riding races for 26 years. His first winning mount was on a quarter horse called White Stockings at Bonham, Texas, and his first winning mount on a big track was on Leachman at New Orleans twenty-three years ago. The "Chief" comes by his Indian blood from his mother, who was a full-blooded Cherokee, Johnson has ridden for many prominent owners, including J. W. Fuller, S. J. Charles, E. Fitzgerald, Thompson Bos., William "Red" Walker and W. T. Anderson. When asked how many different tracks he had ridden over during the twenty-six years, Johnson replied that he couldn't count them.

To the "Chief" belongs the distinction of winning a race over the jumps and on the flat in one day, It happened at Kinloch Park, St. Louis, he winning on Compass and repeating on Hacatiara, both horses being owned by "Red" Walker.

Many humorous stories are told in connection with Johnson's long career in the saddle, one of them being when he won on Deponent at the Fair Grounds in St. Louis, beating The Caxton. Frankie O' Neil, who was the leading jockey around there at that

Many humorous stories are told in connection with Johnson's long career in the saddle, one of them being when he won on Deponent at the Fair Grounds in St. Louis, beating The Caxton. Frankle O' Neill, who was the leading Jockey around there at that time, was on The Caxton, and Dick Vestal, who had Deponent, had backed him down from a high price. Midway of the stretch, with both horses running nose and nose, Johnson "Joshed" O'Neill about being a rider and after the latter replied that he had no whip the "Chief" immediately threw his own whip over in the center field and said: "Let's go see Judge Murphy." Deponent won by a seant nose, and Dick Vestal swears to this day he would have trounced Johnson had he lost the race.

He rode a horse at Denver about four years ago called Henderman, and insists to this day the horse was a ringer, because he says "the man didn't even come back for the purse, but went out the back gate with his horse and all the money in town."

He is still able to do 100 pounds and has been riding frequently on western tracks of late. One of his old-time rivals is Johnny Singleton, whom he would rather beat than any other rider. When he beat Singleton a nose in a driving finish recently the riders in the jockeys' room held a mock war dance in honor of the occasion.

ARMY MEN BELIEVE IN THOROUGHBRED.

The much-maligned thoroughbred is now finding a friend in the Government of the United States. The wholesale stamping out of racing has become a menace that has awakened the Army Department to the crying need for better horses for the service, and it has been shown that the thoroughbred is the one horse that is calculated to produce what is needed for both the cavalry and the artillery. The havoc that has been wrought to the Kentucky breeding farms by reason of the legislation prohibiting racing has been directly responsible for a woeful shortage in suitable army mounts, and it is conceded that the only thing that will restore the breeding interests is the restoration of the sport of racing. Ever since horses have been bred the race course has been the cesting ground, and it will continue to be the testing ground as long as a horse is left. It is the race course that is the crucible where courage, stamina and speed, the three requisites of all horses, have the final test, and without the race course the horse is bound to degenerate.

The army is now taking a lively interest in the subject, and General Wood has pointed out what the sport means for the conservation of the horse in America. At present the amateur meetings, which are all that New York has left, offer races for the army officers and their horses, and the eagerness with which these races fill with entries is proof enough of their popularity and importance. They will surely be continued, but unless there is a return of more and more profitable racing than is offered by the hunt clubs it is only a question of time when lack of horses themselves will cripple even these events.

In this connection it is worth while to observe that in the recent fourteen-mile test conducted by the Washington Hunt and Riding Club the first three horses to finish were thoroughbreds, though there were cold-blooded horses in the company that on general confirmation came up to every requirement of the army standard, and some of them were heavier and apparently better able to s

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Rockville, the champion of the stable of J. E. Seagram, was sent from Fort Eric to the farm at Waterloo and will be out of training for the rest of the season. A suspicious tendon caused his retirement. tirement.

The face for the Prix la Camargo at Maisons La-ffitte in France Sunday, was won by M. Blane's Marka, ridden by Stern. W. K. Vanderbilt's Hal-lerie, with O'Neill up, finished second. There were lerie, with O'Neill up, finished second. There were eleven starters.

The Latonia contingent on the Canadian circuit includes many fine horses this year. Kentuckians have all round better horses than in the past, for the reason that there being no New York buyers for several seasons the best of those bred in the blue grass have not passed to eastern owners. Stables that had been doing well until the Fort Eric meeting failed to hold their own last week. The Schorr horses could win only one race. That was with Leochares, and it cost a thousand dollars to keep the colt. The poor fortune that attended Dick Watthins at Hamilton followed him to Fort Eric, where he could not win a race, and only once got as good a place as second.—Francis Nelson in Toronto Globe. A well defined rumor is in circulation that under certain conditions Elkwood Park, Long Branch, may provide racing two days a week for the rest of the summer. At the track on Saturday this report was on the tip of the tongue, but nobody in authority would confirm it. That the tip had gone out, however, seemed certain inasmuch as several prominent bookmakers came all the way from Canada to look over the ground. The constitutional amendment passed in New Jersey in 1892 closing all tracks expires the coming fail and many residents of Long Branch say they intend to make a strong effort to restore racing. The passing of Monmouth Park, they declare, was a blow from which the famous resort has never recovered.—New York Sun.

Parks, Doane & Parks

3, 5, 7, 9 BEEKMAN STREET NEW YORK CITY Cor. Nassau Street :::

We are often asked whether the "NEW THOUGHT" confines itself to the selection of favorites. We wish to state that odds are not limited in any way and that our investment often calls for plays that have reached the maximum quotation of 25-1. We do not wish the general public to take any statement for granted simply because we # say so. We are willing to prove any assertion we make.

To prove to the public the value of the "NEW THOUGHT" we will forward same to responsible persons upon receipt of TEN DOLLARS, with the understanding that they are to remit the balance of the purchase price, fifteen dollars, after thirty days' trial, which will prove the merits of the most conservative racing system ever offered the public.

Remittances can be made by check, money order, telegraph or in currency.

PAY AFTER YOU WIN

I am in a position to hand out some good information to all that will send me the winnings of a $2 straight bet within twenty-four hours. Send correct name and address where telegrams will reach your in time.
